KCRCI UI Requirements Document

User Task
Arrives to the homepage to learn about KCRCI's efforts and how to donate to their cause

Pages to Design
Homepage
About Page
What's CKD/Need? Page
Products and Services Page
Clinics Page
Contact Page
Donate Page

High Level Requirements

Global – on each webpage within the ZEIT website, there will be a header that has the top navigation panel and there will be a footer.

1. Homepage – where site visitors are introduced to the KCRCI organization
2. About Page – where site visitors can find a brief history of KCRCI, KCRCI's mission and members of the KCRCI organization
3. What's CKD/Need? Page – where site visitors can learn more about CKD and the need to address CKD, kidney functions and dialysis.
4. Products and Services Page – where site visitors can learn about the products and services KCRCI offers
5. Clinics Page – where site visitors can see pictures and details of each KCRCI affiliated clinic
6. Contact Page – where site visitors can send an messages to KCRCI team members
7. Donate Page – where site visitors can make monetary donations to KCRCI

Detailed Requirements

Global
- Omnipresent header with navigation panel and Donate button that will lead the site visitor to the donation page.
- Footer – links to KCRCI's subpages and social media.

Homepage
- Logo and website name
- CTA buttons connecting to Donation and Contact pages.
- Short Descriptions of KCRCI organization and their cause.
- Featured Clinic description and picture

About Page
- KCRCI's history description
- KCRCI's Mission Statement
- Images of KCRCI team
- CTA button linked to donation page

What's CKD/Need? Page
- Description of CKD and the need to address it
- Information of Kidney function
- Information of Treatment Options: Hemodialysis, Peritoneal Dialysis & Transplantation
- CTA button linked to donation page

Product and Services Page
- List of products KCRCI offers
- Description of products KCRCI offers
- CTA button to linked to Contact Page

Clinics Page
- Carousel view of KCRCI's clinics with clinic description and images
- CTA button linked to donation page

Contact Page
- Contact form for visitors to fill out to contact KCRCI team members
- CTA button linked to KCRCI email

Log In Page
- Contact form for visitors to fill out information for monetary donation
- CTA button linked to KCRCI account to receive donations